

DISCOVER
DESIGN.ORG

2014 DiscoverDesign.org National High School Architecture Competition

discoverdesign.org/competition2014

The Chicago Architecture Foundation's new digital learning tool connects teens, teachers and architects to 21st century project-based learning.

DESIGN CHALLENGE

Redesign your high school athletic pavilion.

PRIZES

First prize: Trip for 1 student winner and 1 parent/guardian to Chicago, IL. Trip includes: a roundtrip flight for 2 from within the 50 United States; 2 nights in the Palmer House Hilton Hotel; 2 CAF river cruise and walking tours; a tour of an architecture firm; a copy of CAF's The Architecture Handbook: A Student Guide to Understanding Buildings; and a year's subscription of design software tutorials on BlackSpectacles.com.

Second prize: $250 CAF Shop certificate; a copy of The Architecture Handbook; and a year's subscription of design software tutorials on BlackSpectacles.com.

Third prize: $100 CAF Shop certificate; a copy of The Architecture Handbook; and a year's subscription of design software tutorials on BlackSpectacles.com.

DATES

Competition opens January 28, 2014
Registration forms due April 11, 2014
Entries due online May 6, 2014

Student registrants have free access to architectural design software tutorial videos from BlackSpectacles.com.

RULES

Competition is open to any student at least 13 years old and currently enrolled as a high school student (grades 9–12) within the 50 United States. No cost to enter. All projects must be submitted on DiscoverDesign.org. Mail-in submissions of design projects will not be accepted.

Questions? Email them to DiscoverDesign@architecture.org

CHICAGO ARCHITECTURE FOUNDATION

224 South Michigan Avenue | Chicago, Illinois 60604 | 312.922.3432 | architecture.org

DiscoverDesign.org is made possible through the generous support of the JPMorgan Chase Foundation.